

Two Hundred and Fifty Childrens Suits AT COST

Having decided to change our line of children's clothing, making a radical departure in this department, we offer our entire line of children's clothing at absolute cost for the next thirty days. When The Big Clothing Store says cost we mean cost and we want you to come to our store and see a beautiful line of good merchandise at the lowest possible figure to be found any where on earth.

Watch our window, do your own figuring and results will take care of themselves. We mean exactly what we say.

Respectfully,

WM. A. SULLIVAN, Cash Clothier.

P. S. Mothers, now is your time to dress the little fellows at the very lowest prices that you have had offered you for Years.

Bad Story.

Miss Carrie, the handsome, well developed 17-year-old daughter of Towne F. Littleton, of Cherry Box, Shelby County, has chosen the primrose path.

She came to the fair with her sweetheart, Harve Gander, and deserted him for Frank Clayton, one of the Merry-go-round men.

When time came for the couple to return to their rural home, Carrie refused to accompany her escort.

Where and with whom was she Thursday night, and Friday night is a question.

When she became obdurate, Gander returned home and reported condition of things to the girl's father. Together they returned to the city and at 4 a. m. Sunday, with the assistance of police J. A. Hickman, located Carrie and Clayton in a room in the Commercial Hotel.

The arrest and incarceration of Clayton followed. Then she implicated Earl Spencer as having been her lover. Mr. Spencer's arrest followed on Statutory charges.

Clayton was given his liberty and Spencer bound over in the sum of $500 for the December term of court.
